4. The contract amount is payable in twelve monthly instalments due on or before the 10th of the following month. The contractor shall pay, as soon as the sale is over, a deposit equal to two months' instalment for the due performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract.

5. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of first purchaser. If default is made in the payment of the instalment, interest at one pie per rupee will be levied on the amount due till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold again at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner and the deficit will be recovered from the contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.

6. The contractor is also bound to keep an account showing in detail the daily collections and it shall be open to inspection by the taluk and district authorities.

7. Any breach of the above rules on the part of the contractor or his servants being observed, the contract will be liable to cancellation.
